

A One Minute Guide for - EHCP Process.

What to expect from when an EHCP has been requested

Referral (Day 1)

- Request for assessment from young person, parent, educational setting or other professional working with family.

Decision to assess (Week 6)

- Existing information/evidence collected from those involved (schools, parents/carers, etc.)
- Panel, consisting of Education, Health and Social personnel decide whether to conduct statutory assessment.
- This decision must be completed within 6 weeks.

Co-ordinated Assessment (Week 16)

- EHC caseworker gathers further information and inputs from professionals to inform assessment.
- EHC caseworker undertakes a discussion with family (ideally face-to-face)
- EHC caseworker pulls information together into a summary assessment
- Summary assessment goes back to Panel and a further decision is made whether to proceed with EHC planning.

Planning (Week 18)

- EHC caseworker drafts an EHC plan
- EHC plan is sent to parents/carers to comment on and request an educational institution, LA then consults stated institution, they then have 15 days to reply.
- EHC plan is sent to professionals days before Panel to review.

Sign Off – Final (20 weeks)

- Plan signed off at EHC and issued to parent/carer or young person.
